Transaction details

1. Purpose of this term sheet

This term sheet sets out the indicative terms on which Quillwood Credit Partners may provide a senior secured term loan to FastFreight Logistics Pty Ltd. It is non-binding, remains subject to credit approval, satisfactory due diligence and final documentation, and creates no obligation on either party.

2. Borrower and basis of proposal

The Borrower is a Queensland-headquartered last-mile parcel delivery operator with nine depots across south-east Queensland, Sydney and Melbourne. It delivered approximately 14.6 million parcels in FY26 using 285 FTE employees and 640 owner-driver contractors. FY26 revenue of A$82.8M and EBITDA of A$9.1M (11.0% margin) were first presented as preliminary figures in the Information Memorandum dated 3 August 2026 and have since been confirmed by the audited FY26 financial statements dated 12 September 2026. This proposal also draws on the independent valuation of 21 August 2026, the quantity surveyor report of 26 August 2026 and management accounts to 9 October 2026.

5. Security

- First ranking general security deed over all present and after-acquired property of the Borrower and each material subsidiary.
- Cross guarantees and indemnities from material subsidiaries.
- Share mortgage over the Borrower granted by Rourke Family Holdings Pty Ltd.
- Assignment of key person insurance on Daniel Rourke, in an amount to be agreed.

6. Financial covenants

Tested quarterly on a rolling 12-month basis. Levels are indicative and will be set against the final base case model.

- Net leverage not to exceed 4.50x, stepping down to 3.75x from the second anniversary.
- Interest cover not less than 1.75x.
- Capex limited to the approved A$6.0M programme plus a basket to be agreed.

7. Information and other undertakings

- Monthly management accounts and quarterly compliance certificates.
- Quarterly reporting of revenue by client, including the top three clients (61% of FY26 revenue).
- Prompt notice of any notice of termination or non-renewal from the top client (34% of FY26 revenue, A$28.2M).
- Notice of any contractor reclassification claim or regulatory action.
- Distributions to the sponsor restricted unless net leverage is below 3.25x.

8. Conditions precedent

- Payout and release of existing bank security.
- Evidence of insurance and executed security documents.
- Satisfactory review of client contracts, including the 2028 renewal and 6-month termination for convenience terms.

9. Principal risks considered

Key matters include customer concentration, the contractor model, competitive pricing and fuel pass-through lag, limited headroom at 3.9x net leverage and 2.3x interest cover, execution of the Sydney, Melbourne and automation programmes, and reliance on the founder. These will be addressed in the credit paper and may result in additional terms.

10. Status

This indicative term sheet expires 30 days after its date unless extended in writing. Pricing and terms may change following due diligence and credit approval.
